*„Wir können den Wind nicht ändern,
aber die Segel anders setzen.“*

- Aristoteles

Seit dem Pariser Klimaabkommen haben nachhaltige Geldanlagen deutlich an Bedeutung gewonnen. In diesem Kontext laufen Eigentümer von Vermögenswerten Gefahr, massive Mengen ihrer Assets zu verlieren, wenn sie ihre festverzinslichen Portfolios nicht rechtzeitig auf kohlenstoffarme Anlagen umstellen können. Ein integrierter Ansatz, der über reine Ausschlussverfahren hinausgeht, bietet Anlegern die Chance, ihre CO<sub>2</sub>-Bilanz zu verringern, ohne dabei zusätzliche Risiken einzugehen oder auf Rendite verzichten zu müssen. Durch die Einbeziehung der Carbon Intensity (WACI Scope 1 + 2) in ihr proprietäres Default Probability Model zielt Blackstone Credit Systematic Strategies auf eine CO<sub>2</sub>-Ersparnis von 50%+ gegenüber einer vergleichbaren Benchmark.

Blackstone Credit zielt mit neuer systematischer ESG-Strategie auf Low Carbon ab

Die Reduzierung der Treibhausgasemissionen steht im Vordergrund der politischen Agenda, da Länder auf der ganzen Welt bestrebt sind, bis 2050 Netto-Null zu erreichen. An den Finanzmärkten konzentrieren sich Anleger zunehmend auf nachhaltige Anlagen und tendieren zu Managern, die robuste Strategien anbieten können, die ihnen helfen, ihre ESG-Ziele zu erreichen.

Blackstone Credit Systematic Strategies „Systematic Strategies“ bereitet eine neue, nachhaltige Fixed-Income-Lösung vor, die es Anlegern ermöglichen soll, ihre Portfolios zu dekarbonisieren, ohne die Performance zu beeinträchtigen. Wie Sie als Anleger davon profitieren und warum dies einem ausschlussbasierten Verfahren gegenüber vorteilhaft sein kann, erfahren Sie im Interview mit Tim Kasta, Senior Managing Director und Co-Head of Blackstone Credit's Systematic Strategies Einheit.

Tim Kasta

Senior Managing Director and Co-Head of Blackstone Credit's Systematic Strategies

Prior to Blackstone's acquisition of DCI in 2020, Mr. Kasta was CEO of DCI, LLC, which he joined at its inception in 2004. Before joining DCI, Mr. Kasta was Partner and Managing Director of KMV LLC where he held a variety of roles, including designing and leading the development and marketing of the firm's flagship web product – CreditEdge. After the sale of KMV to Moody's in 2002, Mr. Kasta became Managing Director of Moody's Analytics (formerly Moody's KMV), where he was Co-Head of Business Development and Head of Product Development for the asset management sector. Mr. Kasta began his career in 1993 at Bank of Montreal in Toronto where he was one of the original members of the credit portfolio management team within corporate banking.

Mr. Kasta is a CFA charter holder and received his Bachelor of Arts (HBA) from the Ivey Business School at Western University located in London, Ontario, Canada.

About Blackstone Credit Systematic Strategies:

Blackstone Credit Systematic Strategies (formerly DCI) is an asset management firm specializing in investment grade and high yield corporate credit strategies. The firm manages long-only and long/short strategies for some of the world's largest institutional and private wealth investors. Blackstone Credit Systematic Strategies deploys a fundamental based, systematic approach seeking to exploit potential inefficiencies in the corporate credit markets. The firm offers daily dealing funds including regulated UCITS V compliant funds, offshore funds, onshore funds, and custom managed accounts. The cofounders' achievements include the creation of the world's first equity index fund at Wells Fargo in 1971, cofounding Dimensional Fund Advisors in 1981 and cofounding KMV in 1989. While at KMV between 1989 and 2002, a group of DCI's founders and principals developed the world's first credit default probability model. This model was empirically shown to predict corporate defaults with more precision and accuracy than any previous methods. After Moody's acquired KMV, the team co-founded DCI in 2004 with the singular objective of creating well-diversified portfolios that seek to produce consistent, low-volatility alpha. On December 18, 2020, The Blackstone Group Inc. acquired DCI, LLC which has become a part of Blackstone Credit the credit-focused business of Blackstone. DCI, LLC was subsequently renamed Blackstone Credit Systematic Strategies LLC.

Investment firms are looking to integrate sustainable finance solutions across their fund strategies. How can Blackstone Credit Systematic Strategies help clients with these goals?

Systematic Strategies already incorporates responsible investing across all our existing portfolios through Socially Responsible Investing exclusions. We have built on this by converting a number of our Article 8 compliant UCITS<sup>1</sup> strategies, including Global Investment Grade, U.S. High Yield and EUR Short Duration Bond to a low carbon offering.

In a nutshell the low carbon strategy evaluates credits based on their carbon emissions, essentially targeting companies with the lowest carbon intensity scores to create a portfolio of assets with meaningfully less carbon exposure than the index.

The Systematic Strategies selection process uses an optimizer that systematically identifies the highest alpha credits based on our fundamental credit models, while controlling turnover and ensuring the portfolio remains risk-matched to the benchmark.

That process starts with filtering out the least liquid issuers from the defined list of credits in the relevant index to remove liquidity risk. In addition, the Socially Responsible Investing exclusions are applied to the index universe. Then the portfolio is matched against the credit beta and interest rate risk of the index so that no macro beta bets are taken. Finally, the model selects the names deemed to have the highest absolute mispricing relative to their market spreads and which are fundamentally improving. The spreads on these credits should tighten as the market rewards the firm’s improvement in credit quality to generate returns that are uncorrelated to the index.

The low carbon approach extends upon this framework by adding a carbon constraint to the selection process to achieve a 50%+ lower weighted average carbon intensity score (“WACI”) for the portfolio compared to the index. For reference, the WACI scores the portfolio’s exposure to carbon-intensive companies, based on a company’s Scope 1 and Scope 2 carbon emissions relative to its revenue. Where carbon intensity is not available for a company we use the subsector carbon intensity, which is the ratio of the total emissions of the subsector over the total revenue in the subsector as of that date. If there is an insufficient number companies with data in the relevant subsector, we use the sector carbon intensity, which is the ratio of the total emissions of the sector over the total revenue in the sector as of that date. The measure allows for comparison across the portfolio regardless of the firm size.

What’s the impact on the portfolio when converting to low carbon?

Our systematic investment process allows us to build our carbon targets directly into the portfolio construction. Carbon intensity becomes another condition in the portfolio optimization and is solved for dynamically so that as a firm’s WACI score changes, so will its relative weight in our portfolios. In reality there are currently only a small number of credits in the indices with levels of carbon that are meaningfully higher than the average, and we believe those can be easily substituted. This makes it relatively straightforward to create a portfolio with the same excess return potential but with much lower carbon intensities and substantially reduced WACI relative to the relevant index.

The shift to low carbon format requires a minimal repositioning that could be executed over a normal month’s trading at minimal cost.

<sup>1</sup>) Blackstone Systematic Strategies UCITS Funds have been identified as Article 8 products under the EU’s Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation. Please visit <https://www.blackstone.com/systematic-strategies/> for additional information.

The reference to SFDR product categories is provided on the basis of the European Directive (EU) 2019/2088 on the sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (“SFDR Regulation”) and state of knowledge as of 10 March 2021. As of publication date, the SFDR-related regulatory technical standards are not yet finalized and enforced. The product categorization shall be re-assessed once such regulatory technical standards are completed and may evolve.

Investors want to move to ESG but without compromising on returns. How does the performance of the low carbon strategy compare to the regular portfolio?

Investors look to active managers to outperform an index and that is their chief concern. ESG solutions that reduce carbon exposure often call for excluding entire sectors which can come at a performance cost and/or additional tracking error. Any solution that excludes entire sectors is going to result in a different return profile compared to the index, as well as a smaller investible universe.

By contrast our decarbonization strategy selects the least emissive names from an equivalent set of portfolio choices that the optimizer faces to preserve the overall expected portfolio performance while targeting low tracking error, something we think is compelling for investors.<sup>2)</sup> Note, while not part of the low carbon optimization process, the strategy will avoid certain issuers considered to be poor SRI performers from categories including but not limited to: (i) the mining of coal; (ii) coal power generation; (iii) the manufacturing of tobacco products; (iv) the manufacture or sale of weapons and/or ammunition; (v) the manufacture of opioids; (vi) and private prisons.

Cumulative Return<sup>3)</sup>

What about energy? Environmentally focused investors may have missed out on the outperformance of this sector this year following the rise in natural gas and oil prices. Are energy names excluded from the low carbon model?

Energy has been one of the strongest performing sectors this year fueled by rising oil and natural gas prices. It's also one of the largest sectors in the high yield market, with a 13.2% weighting in the benchmark (higher on a DTS/risk basis).<sup>4)</sup> For comparison energy is 8% of the investment grade market, and about 3% of the S&P 500 index.<sup>5)</sup>

Sector exclusions are not part of our general systematic approach, although we can easily accommodate any custom sector exclusions or other SRI/ESG restrictions at the request of our clients, and it would be undesirable to exclude a sector that represents such a large part of the index. Note, while not part of the low carbon optimization process, the strategy will avoid certain issuers considered to be poor SRI performers from categories including but not limited to: (i) the mining of coal; (ii) coal power generation; (iii) the manufacturing of tobacco products; (iv) the manufacture or sale of weapons and/or ammunition; (v) the manufacture of opioids; (vi) and private prisons.

Our research also shows that often it isn't the energy names that are the worst carbon emitters, which means that excluding energy does not automatically lead to lower WACI compared to the index. If we converted our High Yield strategy to low carbon today the top three names that we would remove are all steel producers.<sup>6)</sup> Our low carbon approach rewards energy companies that successfully transition to renewable energy sources as they stay in our investible universe rather than being permanently excluded from a manager's investment strategy.

HYG ETF	5.77%	6.82%	0.85	1.95%	-1.50%

Carbon Intensity
Tons of CO2 / Million $USD of revenue

Based on our backtest performance our Low Carbon Systematic High Yield Strategy outperforms both the ICE BofAML U.S. High Yield Constrained Index and the ICE BofA US High Yield Excluding Energy, Metals & Mining Index (HXNM).

We think the strategy is a win-win for investors who consider carbon intensity a good measure when it comes to working towards ESG targets, allowing them opportunity to run a portfolio at 50% less carbon while still working to outperform the index.

Key Risk Factors

In considering any investment performance information contained in the Materials, prospective and current investors should bear in mind that past or estimated performance is not necessarily indicative of future results and there can be no assurance that a Fund will achieve comparable results, implement its investment strategy, achieve its objectives or avoid substantial losses or that any expected returns will be met.

Conflicts of Interest. There may be occasions when a Fund's general partner and/or the investment advisor, and their affiliates will encounter potential conflicts of interest in connection with such Fund's activities including, without limitation, the allocation of investment opportunities, relationships with Blackstone's and its affiliates' investment banking and advisory clients, and the diverse interests of such Fund's limited partner group. There can be no assurance that the Sponsor will identify, mitigate, or resolve all conflicts of interest in a manner that is favorable to the Partnership.

Epidemics / Pandemics. Countries have been susceptible to epidemics which may be designated as pandemics by world health authorities, most recently COVID-19. The outbreak of such epidemics, together with any resulting restrictions on travel or quarantines imposed, has had and will continue to have a negative impact on the economy and business activity globally (including in the countries in which the Funds invest), and thereby is expected to adversely affect the performance of the Funds' investments. Furthermore, the rapid development of epidemics could preclude prediction as to their ultimate adverse impact on economic and market conditions, and, as a result, presents material uncertainty and risk with respect to the Funds and the performance of their investments.

Forward-Looking Statements. Certain information contained in the Materials constitutes "forward-looking statements," which can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology or the negatives thereof. These may include financial predictions estimates and their underlying assumptions, statements about plans, objectives and expectations with respect to future operations, and statements regarding future performance. Such forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain and there are or may be important factors that could cause actual outcomes or results to differ materially from those indicated in such statements. Blackstone believes these factors include but are not limited to those described under the section entitled "Risk Factors" in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the most recent fiscal year ended December 31 of that year, and any such updated factors included in its periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which are accessible on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. These factors should not be construed as exhaustive and should be read in conjunction with the other cautionary statements that are included in the Materials and in the filings. Blackstone undertakes no obligation to publicly update or review any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

Highly Competitive Market for Investment Opportunities. The activity of identifying, completing and realizing attractive investments is highly competitive, and involves a high degree of uncertainty. There can be no assurance that a Fund will be able to locate, consummate and exit investments that satisfy its objectives or realize upon their values. There is no guarantee that investment opportunities will be allocated to a Fund and/or that the activities of Blackstone's other funds will not adversely affect the interests of such Fund.

Leverage. A Fund may use leverage or borrow, subject to regulatory limitations where applicable. The use of leverage or borrowings magnifies investment, market and certain other risks and may be significant. A Fund's performance will be affected by the availability and terms of any leverage as such leverage will enhance returns from investments to the extent such returns exceed the costs of borrowings by such Fund. The leveraged capital structure of such assets will increase their exposure to certain factors such as rising interest rates, downturns in the economy, or deterioration in the financial condition of such assets or industry. In addition, because a Fund will pay all expenses, including interest, associated with the use of leverage or borrowings, investors will indirectly bear such costs.

Material, Non-Public Information. In connection with other activities of Blackstone, certain Blackstone personnel may acquire confidential or material non-public information or be restricted from initiating transactions in certain securities, including on a Fund's behalf. As such, a Fund may not be able to initiate a transaction or sell an investment. In addition, policies and procedures maintained by Blackstone to deter the inappropriate sharing of material non-public information may limit the ability of Blackstone personnel to share information with personnel in Blackstone's other business groups, which may ultimately reduce the positive synergies expected to be realized by a Fund as part of the broader Blackstone investment platform.

No Assurance of Investment Return. Prospective investors should be aware that an investment in a Fund is speculative and involves a high degree of risk. There can be no assurance that a Fund will achieve comparable results, implement its investment strategy, achieve its objectives or avoid substantial losses or that any expected returns will be met (or that the returns will be commensurate with the risks of investing in the type of transactions described herein). The portfolio companies in which a Fund may invest (directly or indirectly) are speculative investments and will be subject to significant business and financial risks. A Fund's performance may be volatile. An investment should only be considered by sophisticated investors who can afford to lose all or a substantial amount of their investment. A Fund's fees and expenses may offset or exceed its profits.

Reliance on Key Management Personnel. The success of a Fund will depend, in large part, upon the skill and expertise of certain Blackstone professionals. In the event of the death, disability or departure of any key Blackstone professionals, the business and the performance of a Fund may be adversely affected. Some Blackstone professionals may have other responsibilities, including senior management responsibilities, throughout Blackstone and, therefore, conflicts are expected to arise in the allocation of such personnel's time (including as a result of such personnel deriving financial benefit from these other activities, including fees and performance-based compensation).

Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation („SFDR“). The Systematic UCITS funds, in consultation with Blackstone, have identified certain Systematic UCITS funds as Article 8 for the purposes of SFDR. Systematic UCITS funds may seek to make sustainable investments including investments in economic activities that qualify as environmentally sustainable under Article 3 of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 (the „Taxonomy“). At this time the Systematic UCITS funds have not identified a proportion of investments in such activities or proportion of investments which relate to enabling or transitional activities as referred to in Article 16 and Article 10(2) of the Taxonomy but that may be subject to change. The Taxonomy sets out a "do not significant harm" principle by which Taxonomy-aligned investments should not significantly harm Taxonomy objectives and is accompanied by specific EU criteria. Similarly, any other sustainable investments must also not significantly harm any environmental or social objectives. The "do not significant harm" principle applies only to sustainable investments (if any). Other investments do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities and are not required to apply the "do not significant harm" principle. It is possible that none of the investments underlying the Systematic UCITS funds will take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

Important Disclosure Information

While Blackstone believes responsible investing can enhance value, Blackstone does not pursue an exclusively ESG-based investment strategy or limit its investments to those that meet specific ESG criteria or standards. Data from inception (January 2010) as of September 30, 2021. Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its objectives or avoid significant losses. Performance is based on backtesting returns. Returns are hypothetical results achieved by the retro-active application of a model that has been prepared for general information purposes for consideration by sophisticated prospective investors in the Strategy. The returns are not the actual historical results of the Strategy and accordingly are subject to inherent limitations. The information in this presentation may contain projections or other forward-looking statements regarding future events or expectations. There is no guarantee that the backtest returns, allocations and projections will be realized or achieved and investors may experience a loss. Investors should keep in mind that markets are volatile and unpredictable. Please see Important Disclosure Information and the Limitations of Backtesting Performance Returns. Gross returns are before fees and expenses and net of simulated transaction costs. Net returns are shown after fees and expenses. For illustrative purposes. Backtesting returns are not indicative of past or future results, and there can be no assurance that a fund has or will achieve comparable results. Actual results may vary materially. The volatility and risk profile of the indices presented is likely to be materially different from that of a Fund. In addition, the indices employ different investment guidelines and criteria than a Fund and do not employ leverage; as a result, the holdings in a Fund and the liquidity of such holdings may differ significantly from the securities that comprise the indices.

This document (together with any attachments, appendices, and related materials, the "Materials") is provided on a confidential basis for informational due diligence and/or client reporting purposes only and is not, and may not be relied on in any manner as legal, tax, investment, accounting or other advice or as an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, any security or instrument in or to participate in any trading strategy with Blackstone Credit, Blackstone Credit Systematic Strategies („BXCSS") (formerly DCI, LLC) or its affiliates in the credit-focused business of Blackstone Inc. (together with its affiliates, "Blackstone" and, collectively, "BX Credit") or any fund or separately managed account currently or to be sponsored, managed, advised or sub-advised or pursued by BX Credit (each, a "Fund" or "Strategy"), nor shall it or the fact of its distribution form the basis of, or be relied on in connection with, any contract or investment decision. If such offer is made, it will only be made by means of a prospectus and any supplements thereto (collectively with additional offering documents, the "Offering Documents"), which would contain material information (including certain risks of investing in such Fund) not contained in the Materials and which would supersede and qualify in its entirety the information set forth in the Materials. The Offering Documents (including the prospectuses, supplements and where applicable Key Investor Information document) are available by request of the Fund Administrator or at dcinfo@blackstone.com. Any decision to invest in a Fund should be made after reviewing the Offering Documents of such Fund, conducting such investigations as the investor deems necessary and consulting the investor's own legal, accounting and tax advisers to make an independent determination of the suitability and consequences of an investment in such Fund. In the event that the descriptions or terms described herein are inconsistent with or contrary to the descriptions in or terms of the Offering Documents, the Offering Documents shall control. None of Blackstone, its funds, nor any of their affiliates makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained herein and nothing contained herein should be relied upon as a promise or representation as to past or future performance of a Fund or any other entity, transaction, or investment. Capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined have the meanings set forth in the Offering Documents. The information contained herein is unaudited and preliminary. Final amounts will not be available until a later date. The difference between the preliminary and the final amounts could be material.

In considering any investment performance information contained in the Materials, prospective and current investors should bear in mind that past or estimated performance is not necessarily indicative of future results and there can be no assurance that a Fund will achieve comparable results, implement its investment strategy, achieve its objectives or avoid substantial losses or that any expected returns will be met. The Fund may not achieve the desired results due to implementation lag, other timing factors, portfolio management decision making, economic or market conditions or other unanticipated factors. The Fund's performance information has been derived from its monthly net asset value. Monthly performance results have not been audited; however, the Fund's financial statements for past fiscal years have been audited. Certain factors may cause monthly performance to vary from investor to investor. The performance results of an actual client investment advisory account invested by BXCSS in accordance with the Strategy would be reduced by the advisory fees and performance fees actually incurred in the management of the account; these and other expenses are not reflected in the actual Gross Returns. For example, an investment account that over a five-year period had an average annual investment return of 8% before deduction of an 0.35% annual investment advisory fee would have had a lower average annual investment return of 7.65% after deduction of such annual investment advisory fee. For individual investor performance, investors should rely on information contained in account statements produced by the Fund's administrator. Fund performance shown for the performance period reflects a Fund's return since inception and is based on the actual management fees and expenses paid by Fund investors as a whole.

Performance for individual investors will vary (in some cases materially) from the performance stated herein as a result of the management fees paid or not paid by certain investors; the investor servicing fees paid by certain investors, as applicable; the timing of their investment; and/or their individual participation in Fund investments. Fund performance shown may not reflect returns experienced by any particular investor in a Fund since actual returns to investors depend on when each investor invested in such Fund, which may be at a point in time subsequent to a Fund's equalization period, if applicable. The Fund's Documents contain detailed provisions relating to the timing, methodology and recording of fund expenses, including incentive and management fees. An investment in the Fund is subject to significant risks and is suitable only for investors of substantial financial means that have no need for immediate liquidity in this investment. The Fund uses sophisticated investment techniques and may not be suitable for all investors. The BXCSS fee schedule is presented in its Form ADV Part 2A.

The Materials contain highly confidential information regarding Blackstone and a Fund's investments, strategy and organization. Your acceptance of the Materials constitutes your agreement that the Materials are designated as "trade secret" and "highly confidential" by Blackstone and are neither publicly available nor do they constitute a public record and that you shall (i) keep confidential all the information contained in the Materials, as well as any information derived by you from the information contained in the Materials (collectively, "Confidential Information") and not disclose any such Confidential Information to any other person (including in response to any Freedom of Information Act, public records statute, or similar request), (ii) not use any of the Confidential Information for any purpose other than to evaluate or monitor investments in a Fund, (iii) not use the Confidential Information for purposes of trading securities, including, without limitation, securities of Blackstone or its portfolio companies, (iv) except to download the Materials from BXAccess, not copy the Materials without the prior consent of Blackstone, and (v) promptly return any or all of the Materials and copies hereof to Blackstone upon Blackstone's request, in each case subject to the confidentiality provisions more fully set forth in a Fund's Offering Documents and any other written agreement(s) between the recipient and Blackstone, a current or potential portfolio company, or a third-party service provider engaged by Blackstone in connection with evaluation of a potential investment opportunity.

The Fund is not registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the „1940 Act“), in reliance on an exception thereunder. Shares of the Fund have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the „1933 Act“), or the securities laws of any state and are being offered and sold in reliance on exemptions from the registration requirements of the 1940 Act, 1933 Act and such laws. Accordingly, the Fund is not required to comply with the specific disclosure requirements that apply to registration under the 1933 Act, and investors in the Fund are not afforded the protections of the 1940 Act. These securities shall not be offered or sold in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful until the requirements of the laws of such jurisdiction have been satisfied.

Blackstone Proprietary Data. Certain information and data provided herein is based on Blackstone proprietary knowledge and data. While Blackstone currently believes that such information is reliable for purposes used herein, it is subject to change, and reflects Blackstone's opinion as to whether the amount, nature and quality of the data is sufficient for the applicable conclusion, and no representations are made as to the accuracy or completeness thereof.

ERISA Fiduciary Disclosure. The foregoing information has not been provided in a fiduciary capacity under ERISA, and it is not intended to be, and should not be considered as, impartial investment advice.

ESG initiatives described in these Materials related to Blackstone's portfolio, portfolio companies, and investments (collectively, "portfolio companies") are aspirational and not guarantees or promises that all or any such initiatives will be achieved. Statements about ESG initiatives or practices related to portfolio companies do not apply in every instance and depend on factors including, but not limited to, the relevance or implementation status of an ESG initiative to or within the portfolio company; the nature and/or extent of investment in, ownership of or, control or influence exercised by Blackstone with respect to the portfolio company; and other factors as determined by investment teams, corporate groups, asset management teams, portfolio operations teams, companies, investments, and/or businesses on a case-by-case basis. In particular, the ESG initiatives or practices described in these Materials are less applicable to or not implemented at all with respect to Blackstone's public markets investing businesses, specifically, Credit, Hedge Fund Solutions (BAAM) and Harvest. In addition, Blackstone will not pursue ESG initiatives for every portfolio company. Where Blackstone pursues ESG initiatives for portfolio companies, there is no guarantee that Blackstone will successfully create positive ESG impact while enhancing long-term shareholder value and achieving financial returns. There can be no assurance that any of the ESG initiatives described in these Materials will exist in the future, will be completed as expected or at all, or will apply to or be implemented uniformly across Blackstone business units or across all portfolio companies within a particular Blackstone business unit. Blackstone may select or reject portfolio companies or investments on the basis of ESG-related investment risks, and this may cause Blackstone's funds and/or portfolio companies to underperform relative to other sponsors' funds and/or portfolio companies which do not consider ESG factors at all or which evaluate ESG factors in a different manner. The selected investment examples, case studies and/or transaction summaries presented or referred to in these Materials are provided for illustrative purposes only and should not be viewed as representative of the present or future success of ESG initiatives implemented by Blackstone or its portfolio companies or of a given type of ESG initiatives generally. There can be no assurances that Blackstone's investment objectives for any Fund will be achieved or that its investment programs will be successful. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. While Blackstone believes ESG factors can enhance long-term value, Blackstone does not pursue an ESG-based investment strategy or limit its investments to those that meet specific ESG criteria or standards, except with respect to products or strategies that are explicitly designated as doing so in their Offering Documents or other applicable governing documents. Any such considerations do not qualify Blackstone's objectives to maximize risk-adjusted returns.

Estimates / Targets. Any estimates, targets, forecasts, or similar predictions or returns set forth herein are based on assumptions and assessments made by Blackstone that it considers reasonable under the circumstances as of the date hereof. They are necessarily speculative, hypothetical, and inherently uncertain in nature, and it can be expected that some or all of the assumptions underlying such estimates, targets, forecasts, or similar predictions or returns contained herein will not materialize and/or that actual events and consequences thereof will vary materially from the assumptions upon which such estimates, targets, forecasts, or similar predictions or returns have been based. Inclusion of estimates, targets, forecasts, or similar predictions or returns herein should not be regarded as a representation or guarantee regarding the reliability, accuracy or completeness of such information, and neither Blackstone nor a Fund is under any obligation to revise such returns after the date provided to reflect the occurrence of future events, even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying such returns are later shown to be incorrect. None of Blackstone, a Fund, their affiliates or any of the respective directors, officers, employees, partners, shareholders, advisers and agents of any of the foregoing makes any assurance, representation or warranty as to the accuracy of such assumptions. Investors and clients are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Recipients of the Materials are encouraged to contact Fund representatives to discuss the procedures and methodologies used to make the estimates, targets, forecasts, and/or similar predictions or returns and other information contained herein.

Index Comparison. The volatility and risk profile of the indices presented is likely to be materially different from that of a Fund. In addition, the index employs different investment guidelines and criteria than a Fund and do not employ leverage; as a result, the holdings in a Fund and the liquidity of such holdings may differ significantly from the securities that comprise the index. The index is not subject to fees or expenses, and it may not be possible to invest in the index. The performance of the index may not necessarily have been selected to represent an appropriate benchmark to compare to a Fund's performance, but rather is disclosed to allow for comparison of a Fund's performance to that of a well-known and widely recognized index. A summary of the investment guidelines for the indices presented are available upon request. In the case of equity indices, performance of the indices reflects the reinvestment of dividends.

Target Allocations. There can be no assurance that a Fund will achieve its objectives or avoid substantial losses. Allocation strategies and targets depend on a variety of factors, including prevailing market conditions and investment availability. There is no guarantee that such strategies and targets will be achieved, and any particular investment may not meet the target criteria.

Returns and Performance Impact

Credit return is the return achieved over and above the default risk free return, not including fees or expenses. The Credit Return is calculated for each period by subtracting the fees and expenses and the default risk-free return from the return implied by the published NAV. Gross Returns used herein do not reflect the payment of investment advisory fees or other expenses. The performance results of an actual client investment advisory account invested by Blackstone in accordance with the Account would be reduced by the advisory fees and performance fees and other expenses actually incurred in the management of the account; these and other expenses are not reflected in the Credit Returns or Gross Returns. For example, an investment account that over a five-year period had an average annual investment return of 8% before deduction of an 0.35% annual investment advisory fee would have had a lower average annual investment return of 7.65% after deduction of such annual investment advisory fee. Blackstone's investment advisory fees are described in Part 2 of Form ADV. The information contained herein is unaudited and preliminary. Final amounts will not be available until a later date.

The difference between the preliminary and the final amounts could be material. Certain factors may cause monthly performance to vary from investor to investor. Thus, individual investor performance, as well as the aggregate performance, may differ from the performance reflected herein.

Total return is the combination of the Default Risk-Free Return and Credit Return. The Total Return reflects the reinvestment of all distributions, coupons and other earnings. Total returns are gross of all fees expenses and residual returns due to currency share class hedging. Gross returns are before fees and expenses, calculated by Blackstone, and unaudited. Gross returns reflect the reinvestment of all distributions, coupons and other earnings. Net returns are after fees and expenses.

Certain performance information presented in the presentation is based on the performance of a funded separate account. This approach is subject to certain inherent limitations, and individual investor performance, as well as the aggregate performance, may differ materially from the performance information reflected herein. For individual investor performance, investors should rely on information contained in account statements produced by the administrator. The Fund's Documents contain detailed provisions relating to the timing, methodology and recording of fund expenses, including incentive and management fees. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. No assurance can be given that the investment objective will be achieved. Certain factors may cause monthly performance to vary from investor to investor.

The Blackstone High Yield Systematic Corporate Strategy is a composite containing all fully discretionary Blackstone high yield corporate bond accounts which includes fund vehicles and separately managed accounts. The returns are asset weighted and the accounts in the composite may have different fees and expenses. Blackstone's investment advisory fees are described in Part 2 of Form ADV. Fees and expenses are a combination of management fees and other fund expenses, including but not limited to, custodian and administration fees which may differ between accounts within the composite. Gross returns reflect the reinvestment of all distributions, coupons and other earnings. Additional information on the composite is available upon request to Blackstone. The Strategy may be implemented in a variety of legal structures. Individual accounts may incur additional expenses outside of Blackstone's control in the operation of their account. The statistical information presented is based on the most representative account in the composite as determined by Blackstone. The Blackstone High Yield Systematic Corporate Strategy Composite was created July 1, 2016. The Index is the ICE BofAML US HY Constrained Index (HUCO).

Limitations of Backtesting Performance Returns

Where backtesting performance results or returns are shown they are hypothetical results achieved by the retroactive application of a model that has been prepared for general information purposes only for consideration by sophisticated prospective investors in the Fund and should not be considered indicative of the skill of BX Credit. The backtest returns do not represent actual trading, and they may not reflect the impact that material economic and market factors, including collateral requirements necessary to achieve the leverage expressed in the backtest performance results, might have had on BX Credit investment decision-making if BX Credit had actually been managing client accounts using the different criteria as described in this presentation during the periods indicated. The backtest performance results are based on the assumptions described herein, which have been made for modeling purposes and may not be realized. No representation or warranty is made as to the reasonableness of the assumptions, or that all assumptions used in modeling the backtest results have been stated or fully considered. The backtest performance results do not guarantee or determine the Fund's actual future results, and BX Credit may not be able to implement the investment strategy expressed in the backtest performance results in the future. One of the limitations of hypothetical performance results is that they are prepared with the benefit of hindsight. There are numerous other factors related to the markets in general and to the implementation of any specific trading strategy which cannot be fully accounted for in the preparation of hypothetical performance results and all of which can adversely affect actual trading results.

BXC Ex-Energy HY strategy backtest performance results are presented for the period from January 1, 2010 to June 30, 2021. It leverages the same settings as Blackstone High Yield Systematic Corporate Bond Strategy backtest but constrains the energy sector so that oil & gas, coal mining and metals mining constituents (as determined by a Blackstone classification scheme), are excluded from the investable universe. The Backtest returns reflect a 25bp management fee and 10bp in expenses p.a., net of simulated transaction costs and a one-week lagged implementation. Transaction costs are simulated in the backtesting by using the average relationship between the bonds liquidity score and the median bid-offer as a percentage of spread level. Assumes index interest rate return implying interest rate exposure of the Index matched by strategy. Updated backtest performance results are available upon request. The returns reflect the reinvestment of income and anticipated management fees, unless otherwise indicated.

BXC 50%+ Less Carbon HY Strategy Backtest performance results are presented for the period from January 1, 2010 to June 30, 2021. It leverages the same settings as Blackstone High Yield Systematic Corporate Strategy backtest but constrains carbon intensity so that it is consistently 50% less than the ICE BofAML US High Yield Index (HUCO). The Backtest returns reflect a 50bps management fee and 10bp in expenses p.a., net of simulated transaction costs and a one-week lagged implementation. Transaction costs are simulated in the backtesting by using the average relationship between the bonds liquidity score and the median bid-offer as a percentage of spread level. Assumes index interest rate return implying interest rate exposure of the Index matched by strategy. Updated backtest performance results are available upon request. The returns reflect the reinvestment of income and anticipated management fees, unless otherwise indicated.

The investment environment and market conditions may be markedly different in the future and investment results will fluctuate in value. The scenarios included in the presentation are based on BX Credit assumptions and calculations and are subject to change. Estimates and other forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain, and changing factors, such as those affecting the markets generally, or those affecting particular industries or issuers, may cause events or results to differ from those discussed herein. Therefore, there can be no assurances that the stated returns can be achieved and the client may experience a loss.

Definitions

ICE BofAML US High Yield Index (HUCO): The ICE BofAML US High Yield Master II Constrained Index contains all securities in the ICE BofAML US High Yield Index but caps issuer exposure at 2%.

Index constituents are capitalization-weighted, based on their current amount outstanding, provided the total allocation to an individual issuer does not exceed 2%. Issuers that exceed the limit are reduced to 2% and the face value of each of their bonds is adjusted on a pro-rata basis. Similarly, the face values of bonds of all other issuers that fall below the 2% cap are increased on a pro-rata basis. In the event there are fewer than 50 issuers in the Index, each is equally weighted, and the face values of their respective bonds are increased or decreased on a prorata basis. Accrued interest is calculated assuming next-day settlement. Cash flows from bond payments that are received during the month are retained in the index until the end of the month and then are removed as part of the rebalancing. Cash does not earn any reinvestment income while it is held in the Index. The Index is rebalanced on the last calendar day of the month, based on information available up to and including the third business day before the last business day of the month. Issues that meet the qualifying criteria are included in the Index for the following month. Issues that no longer meet the criteria during the course of the month remain in the Index until the next month-end rebalancing at which point they are removed from the Index. ICE BofAML US High Yield Index (H0A0): ICE BofAML US High Yield Index tracks the performance of US dollar denominated below investment grade corporate debt publicly issued in the US domestic market. Qualifying securities must have a below investment grade rating (based on an average of Moody's, S&P and Fitch), at least 18 months to final maturity at the time of issuance, at least one year remaining term to final maturity as of the rebalancing date, a fixed coupon schedule and a minimum amount outstanding of $250 million. In addition, qualifying securities must have risk exposure to countries that are members of the FX-G10, Western Europe or territories of the US and Western Europe. The FX-G10 includes all Euro members, the US, Japan, the UK, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Switzerland, Norway and Sweden. Original issue zero coupon bonds, 144a securities (both with and without registration rights), and pay-in-kind securities (including toggle notes) are included in the index. Callable perpetual securities are included provided they are at least one year from the first call date. Fixed-to floating rate securities are included provided they are callable within the fixed rate period and are at least one year from the last call prior to the date the bond transitions from a fixed to a floating rate security. Contingent capital securities ("cocos") are excluded, but capital securities where conversion can be mandated by a regulatory authority, but which have no specified trigger, are included. Other hybrid capital securities, such as those issues that potentially convert into preference shares, those with both cumulative and non-cumulative coupon deferral provisions, and those with alternative coupon satisfaction mechanisms, are also included in the index. Securities issued or marketed primarily to retail investors, equity-linked securities, securities in legal default, hybrid securitized corporates, eurodollar bonds (USD securities not issued in the US domestic market), taxable and tax-exempt US municipal securities and DRD-eligible securities are excluded from the index.

iShares iBoxx $ High Yield Corporate Bond ETF (HYG): Seeks to track the investment results of an index composed of US dollar-denominated, high yield corporate bonds.

SPDR® Bloomberg Barclays High Yield Bond ETF (JNK): Seeks to provide investment results that, before fees and expenses, correspond generally to the price and yield performance of the Bloomberg Barclays High Yield Very Liquid Index.

Hong Kong

The foregoing document contains information about complex products and is not an offer to sell any Securities other than: (i) to „professional investors“ as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571) of Hong Kong (“SFC”) and any rules made under that Ordinance; or (ii) in other circumstances that do not constitute an invitation to the public for the purposes of the SFO. By the issue and possession of this document, The Blackstone Group (HK) Limited has not issued or had in its possession for the purposes of issue, and will not issue or have in its possession for the purposes of issue, whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere, any advertisement, invitation or document relating to the Securities, which is directed at, or the contents of which are likely to be accessed or read by, the public of Hong Kong (except if permitted to do so under the securities laws of Hong Kong) other than with respect to Securities which are or are intended to be disposed of only to persons outside Hong Kong or only to „professional investors“ as referred to above. The contents of this document have not been reviewed or authorized by any regulatory authority in Hong Kong. Investors are advised to exercise caution in relation to the offer and should not make any investment decisions based on this document alone. Investors should obtain independent professional advice in relation to any doubts or contents of this document.

Israel

No action has been or will be taken in Israel that would permit a public offering of the Fund, or distribution of this document to the public in Israel. This document has not been approved by the Israel Securities Authority. This document is being distributed only to and is directed only at persons who are Qualified Investors within the meaning of The Securities Law, 5728-1968 (Israel).

Any investment or investment activity to which this document relates is available only to Qualified Investors and will be engaged in only with Qualified Investors. Qualified Investors in receipt of this document must not distribute, publish, reproduce, or disclose this document (in whole or in part) to any person who is not a Qualified Investor. Neither the general partner, nor the investment advisor, is registered or intends to register as an investment adviser or an investment portfolio manager under the Israeli regulation of investment advice and investment portfolio management law, 5755-1995 (the „investment law“). Furthermore, these interests are not being offered by a licensed marketer of securities pursuant to the investment law.

New Zealand

Notice to residents of New Zealand:

This document and the information contained in or accompanying this document are not, and are under no circumstances to be construed as, an offer of financial products for issue requiring disclosure to an investor under Part 3 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 (N.Z.) (the “Financial Markets Conduct Act (N.Z.)”). This document and the information contained in or accompanying this document have not been registered, filed with or approved by any New Zealand regulatory authority or under or in accordance with the Financial Markets Conduct Act (N.Z.). This document and the information contained in or accompanying this document are not a disclosure document under New Zealand law and do not contain all the information that a disclosure document is required to contain under New Zealand law. Any offer or sale of any Interests described in these materials in New Zealand will be made only:

- (a) to a person who is an investment business; or
- (b) to a person who meets the investment activity criteria specified in clause 38 of Schedule 1 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act (N.Z.); or
- (c) to a person who is large within the meaning of clause 39 of Schedule 1 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act (N.Z.); or
- (d) to a person who is a government agency; or
- (e) to a person who is a close business associate within the meaning of clause 4 of Schedule 1 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act (N.Z.) of the Offeror; or
- (f) in other circumstances where there is no contravention of the Financial Markets Conduct Act (N.Z.) (or any statutory modification or re-enactment of, or statutory substitution for, the Financial Markets Conduct Act (N.Z.)).

In subscribing for Interests each investor represents and agrees that it is not acquiring those Interests with a view to dealing with them (or any of them) other than where an exclusion under Part 1 of Schedule 1 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act (N.Z.) applies to such dealing and, accordingly:

- (a) it has not offered or sold, and will not offer or sell, directly or indirectly, any Interests; and
- (b) it has not distributed and will not distribute, directly or indirectly, any offering materials or advertisement in relation to any offer of Interests, in each case in New Zealand within 12 months after the issue of Interests to that investor other than to persons who meet the criteria set out in (a) to (e) above.

Warning:

New Zealand law normally requires people who offer financial products to give information to investors before they invest. This requires those offering financial products to have disclosed information that is important for investors to make an informed decision. The usual rules do not apply to this offer because there is an exclusion for offers where the amount invested upfront by the investor (plus any other investments the investor has already made in the financial products) is $750,000 or more. As a result of this exclusion, you may not receive a complete and balanced set of information. You will also have fewer other legal protections for this investment. Ask questions, read all documents carefully, and seek independent financial advice before committing yourself.

Singapore

Blackstone Singapore Pte. Ltd. („Blackstone Singapore“) is a capital markets services license holder for fund management and dealing in securities and is an exempt financial adviser (in relation to the marketing of collective investment schemes and advising others, directly or through publications or writings, and whether in electronic, print or other form, concerning securities and collective investment schemes) regulated by the Monetary Authority of Singapore. The Investment Advisor of the Fund is registered as an investment adviser under the U.S. Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and is subject to Rule 206(4)-2 („Custody Rule“) under the Investment Advisers Act. The offer or sale, or invitation for subscription or purchase, of the interests (the „Interests“) in the Fund(s), which is the subject of this document, does not relate to a collective investment scheme which is authorised under Section 286 of the Securities and Futures Act, Chapter 289 of Singapore (the „SFA“) or recognised under Section 287 of the SFA. The Fund(s) is not authorised or recognised by the Monetary Authority of Singapore (the „MAS“) and the Interests are not allowed to be offered to the retail public. Each of this document and any other document or material issued in connection with the offer or sale, or invitation for subscription or purchase, of the Interests is not a prospectus as defined in the SFA. Accordingly, statutory liability under the SFA in relation to the content of prospectuses would not apply. You should consider carefully whether the investment is suitable for you.

This document has not been registered as a prospectus with the MAS. Accordingly, this document and any other document or material in connection with the offer or sale, or invitation for subscription or purchase, of Interests may not be circulated or distributed, nor may Interests be offered or sold, or be made the subject of an invitation for subscription or purchase, whether directly or indirectly, to persons in Singapore other than (i) to an institutional investor under Section 304 of the SFA, (ii) to a relevant person pursuant to Section 305(1) of the SFA, or any person pursuant to Section 305(2) of the SFA, and in accordance with the conditions specified in Section 305 of the SFA, or (iii) otherwise pursuant to, and in accordance with the conditions of, any other applicable provision of the SFA.

The Interests subscribed or purchased pursuant to Sections 304 or 305 of the SFA may only be transferred in accordance with provisions of Sections 304A and 305A of the SFA respectively.

Where the Interests are acquired under Section 305 of the SFA by a relevant person which is a corporation (which is not an accredited investor (as defined in Section 4A of the SFA)) the sole business of which is to hold investments and the entire share capital of which is owned by one or more individuals, each of whom is an accredited investor, the securities (as defined in Section 239(1) of the SFA) of that corporation shall not be transferable for 6 months after that corporation has acquired the Interests under Section 305 except:

- (1) to an institutional investor or to a relevant person as defined in Section 305(5) or arising from an offer under Section 275 (1A) of the SFA;
- (2) where no consideration is given for the transfer; or
- (3) where the transfer is by operation of law.

Where the Interests are acquired under Section 305 of the SFA by a relevant person which is a trust (where the trustee is not an accredited investor) whose sole purpose is to hold investments and each beneficiary is an individual who is an accredited investor, the beneficiaries' rights and interests in that trust shall not be transferable for 6 months after that trust has acquired the Interests under Section 305 except:

- (1) to an institutional investor or to a relevant person as defined in Section 305 (5) of the SFA or arising from an offer that is made on terms that such rights or interest are acquired at a consideration of not less than S$200,000 (or its equivalent in a foreign currency) (or such other amount as may be prescribed under the SFA) for each transaction, whether such amount is to be paid for in cash or by exchange of securities or other assets;
- (2) where no consideration is given for the transfer; or
- (3) where the transfer is by operation of law.

By accepting receipt of this document and any other document or material issued in connection with the offer or sale, or invitation for subscription or purchase, of the Interests, a person in Singapore represents and warrants that he is entitled to receive such document in accordance with the restrictions set forth above and agrees to be bound by the limitations contained herein.

Uruguay

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS OF URUGUAY: The offering of the Interests qualifies as a private placement pursuant to section 2 of Uruguayan law 18,627. The Interests will not be offered or sold to the public in Uruguay, except in circumstances which do not constitute a public offering or distribution under Uruguayan laws and regulations. Neither the Fund nor the Interests are or will be registered with la Superintendencia de Servicios Financieros del Banco Central del Uruguay. The Fund corresponds to an investment fund that is not an investment fund regulated by Uruguayan law 16,774 dated September 27, 1996, as amended. Please note that Uruguayan investors (including Uruguayan pension funds and insurance companies) may need to comply with certain requirements under applicable foreign exchange law regulations.

Termination of marketing arrangements. Please note that the Fund may decide to terminate the arrangements made for the marketing of the Fund in one or more EU member states pursuant to the UCITS marketing passport in accordance with the procedure provided for under the applicable laws that implement Article 93a of Directive 2009/65/EC (the UCITS Directive).

Investor rights and access to collective redress mechanisms. The legal relationship between an investor and Blackstone Systematic Credit Umbrella Fund plc, an umbrella fund with segregated liability between sub-funds (the umbrella fund and each sub-fund, collectively and individually, the “Fund”) is a contractual one, governed principally by the application form executed by the investor when subscribing for shares in the Fund and the constitutional document. As an investor in the Fund, an investor has various rights which derive from:

- the application form, the constitutional document, and other relevant documents of the Fund; and
- Applicable Law and Regulation*.

Such rights may include, but are not limited to, the right to participate in changes in the net asset value of such investor’s shares; the right to a share of any dividends or distributions paid out by the Fund; the right to attend at general meetings of the shareholders of the Fund and to vote on any motion tabled at such meetings; subject to certain conditions, the right to call a general meeting of investors in the Fund; the right to request the redemption of the investor’s shares by the Fund and certain rights in respect of how the Fund uses the investor’s personal data. The exercise by an investor of these rights is strictly subject to the terms and conditions of the relevant Fund documents and/or legislation from which these rights derive. The foregoing is only a brief summary of examples of the rights of an investor in relation to the Fund. For a more detailed description of their rights vis-à-vis the Fund, investors should consult their own legal advisor. Both the subscription agreement between an investor and the Fund and the constitutional document are governed by Irish law. In the event that an investor believes they have suffered loss as a result of the actions or inactions of the Fund or any relevant UCITS management company, an investor may seek to take proceedings against such parties in the Irish courts or, in certain circumstances, in the courts of another jurisdiction. Whether the judgement of a foreign court will be recognised and enforced against the Fund or a UCITS management company in Ireland will depend on the circumstances of the case and will be subject to the relevant national and international law that governs such matters in Ireland. At present, pending implementation of Directive (EU) 2020/1828 on representative actions for consumers, there are no recognised means, in Ireland or at a European Union level, by which an investor who may have suffered a loss as result of the actions or inactions of the Fund or the UCITS management company may seek collective redress.

*Applicable Law and Regulation in this regard includes, but is not limited to, the Companies Act 2014, the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011 and the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 (Section 48(1)) (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2019, the Irish Data Protection Acts 1988 to 2018, the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679), the EU ePrivacy Directive 2002/58/EC, each as amended or replaced from time to time.
